Is this the correct form?

This form can be used to designate your primary and contingent beneficiaries. Any existing beneficiary or beneficiaries on file will be replaced with the information on this form.

Under this retirement plan, if you are married, your spouse must be the sole beneficiary to your plan benefits unless your spouse has consented in writing to your alternative beneficiary designation(s). If you are married and you wish to name a trust or someone other than your spouse as primary beneficiary, you and your spouse must review and complete the information on this form.

Marital status: Please provide your marital status in order to ensure timely processing of your beneficiary designations.

2 Designate your beneficiaries.

The following individual(s) will be my beneficiary or beneficiaries. If any primary or contingent beneficiary dies before me, their interest and the interest of their heirs will terminate completely. The percentage share of any remaining beneficiary or beneficiaries will acquire the designated share of my balance.

Primary beneficiary: Based on federal law, if you are married and you name a primary beneficiary other than your spouse, your spouse must consent in writing in Step 4 of this form.

Beneficiary percentages must be in whole numbers only. The total percentage of all primary beneficiaries must equal 100% and the total percentage of all contingent beneficiaries must equal 100%.

Trust as a beneficiary: If you designate a trust as a beneficiary, a copy of the signed trust is required. If the trust is amended in the future, any amendments must be provided to Lincoln.
